

There should be NO changes in NJ's Do Not Call Law. It has brought civility back to our meal times and family gatherings. If the FCC takes such terrible action as to weaken NJ's Do Not Call Law we will know for sure that you are all on the take and don't serve the public interest the way you should.